Acknowledgement of the Original Peoples of the Land

We humbly acknowledge that our bakery is located on sacred, living land, in Multnomah Village in SW Portland. This land is the ancestral and unceded territory of the original peoples of the Wasco, Clackamas, Kathlamet, Cowlitz, Molalla, Tumwater, the Multnomah, and Watlala bands of the Chinook peoples, and the Tualatin Band of Kalapuya, who are now a part of the Confederated Tribes of the Grand Ronde, as well as many other tribes who made their homes along the Columbia (Wimahl) and Willamette (Whilamut) Rivers. They lived and thrived in a complex and interdependent relationship with the land and other beings long before colonial settlement. We recognize that Portland today is a community of many diverse Native peoples who continue to live and work here. We respectfully acknowledge and honor all Indigenous communities—past, present, future—and are grateful for their ongoing and vibrant presence.

Equity, Diversity, & Inclusion Commitment

At Sarah Bellum's Bakery & Workshop, we are committed to diversity, equity, inclusion, and social justice. We focus on supporting adults with disability from acquired brain injury, a marginalized and often misunderstood population with "invisible" injuries. We do not and shall not discriminate on the basis of race, ethnicity, color, religion (creed), gender, gender identity or expression, age, national origin (ancestry), disability, marital status, sexual orientation, or military status, in any of its activities or operations. These activities include, but are not limited to, hiring and firing of staff, selection of volunteers and vendors, and provision of services. We are committed to providing an inclusive and welcoming environment for all members of our community, including our staff, clients, volunteers, subcontractors, vendors, and customers.
